Dr. Volnick received her bachelors degree in communications, masters and doctorate degrees in education leadership at FAU and has over thirty years experience in higher education administration. Since 1991 she has grown with the Florida Atlantic University.

As Chief Operations Officer and Vice-President for administrative and operational units, she has served in numerous positions in financial and public affairs and as the university inspector general. Dr. Volnick is committed to enhancing the university experience for the FAU family and support the institution's academic mission.

No one could be more prepared and experienced to step into leadership as the president of Florida Atlantic University. And being the first generation college graduate in her family, she serves as a role model for others to achieve greatness and success in their lives while helping others.

As board members of the Advisory Council for the Center for Women, Gender and Sexuality Studies and founders of the Feminist Fund, Inc. at FAU, We are honored to support Dr. Stacy Volnick for President of Florida Atlantic University.
