Why Courts Matter

GUEST SPEAKER

Damien Filer
Communications Director
Progress Florida Education Institute

“No matter what issues concern you most, the courts play a vital role in determining how those issues get resolved. Whether you care about access to health care and reproductive rights or voting rights or gun safety, you should care about our courts. We all have a part to play in ensuring we have judges who will protect the rights of every American, and every Floridian, not just the wealthy and well connected.”
